

HISTORICAL
ST. TAMMANY SOCIETY

P.O. Box 1251
Mandeville, LA 70470-1251

September 2007

St. Tammany Historical Society ❖ St. Tammany Genealogical Society

We are proud to present Ms. Sally Reeves, retired Notarial Archivist of Orleans Parish, and Mr. David Carambat maritime historian, cinematographer and exhibit designer. These two historians have spent months researching the Mandeville area in preparation for an new exhibit entitled "Mandeville: The Good Life." It is slated for an early 2008 opening at Mandeville Trailhead.

A nationally recognized

Co Sponsor

"Bernard de Marigny and Early Mandeville"

with Sally Reeves, Archivist
David Carambat, Exhibit Designer

archivist and conservator, Ms. Reeves will speak on Bernard de Marigny, the Marigny family and the evolution of his town.

Mr. Carambat will contribute an overview of environmental history of the area, transportation history, and the development of the town as a resort community.

We are pleased to join forces this evening with the St. Tammany Genealogical Society.

President Robin Leckbee

Lecture & Dinner

"Bernard de Marigny and Early Mandeville," is Sat., September 15 at 6PM. Cost is $30 per person. Includes tax and gratuity.

Rsvp by Wed. September 12

Contact person: Jody, 892-3708

La Provence Restaurant sports a fresh coat of paint with upgraded sophistication and an airy bar. The congenial atmosphere of by-gone-days remains. Attendees will experience Chef John Bech's culinary delights. Limited seating.